TEAM NOVA SCOTIA ELIMINATED BY NEWFOUNDLAND, FINISH 2-2 AT MEN'S NATIONALS.

On Saturday, Team Newfoundland and Labrador held on for an 11-9 victory, moving their record to 2-2 to match Team Nova Scotia, and by virtue of the tie-breaker being the head-to-head result, they advanced and ended our tournament.

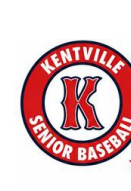

Observers can't help but be struck by the haunting image of the dejected Nova Scotia team, to a man, hanging their heads in disbelief, having lost a game that was well within their reach. The tournament format is particularly cruel; you are simultaneously projecting several games ahead, configuring outcomes, and considering which players will play which roles in the games to come. At the same time, you must take it one play, one out, one at-bat at a time. That Nova Scotia ran out of outs against the Newfoundland team is particularly cruel when the team had so much more baseball left, so many hits, so many incredible innings... and to leave it all at Memorial Field in Newcastle, where games were only moved due to forecasted rain on Sunday, feels like undeserved injustice.

Perhaps this is the beauty of baseball in that one call one way or another, one at bat, one play an inch or two here can decide your fate. The old adage is that you can't win them all but it's of little consolation when you simply must. Nova Scotia failed to advance, but by no means call this team a failure. They surely would expect a better result if only they could play these games over, but are heading home empty-handed and brokenhearted.

Team Nova Scotia would like to sincerely thank all of their supporters, fans, and followers, especially those who made the journey to Chatham with big expectations for this ball club. Thanks also to the six pickups who joined our team and made key contributions - we regret that you did not have more opportunities and our journey has ended. We congratulate the medalists, Chatham (gold), Quebec (silver), and Alberta (bronze).

The Kentville Wildcats now turn their attention back to the conclusion of the NSSBL regular season, where they sit in second place, five and a half games behind the Dartmouth Dry and one-half game ahead of the Sydney Sooners in third place.

EVAN RYAN PROVIDES PLENTY OF POP, HITS 9 HOME RUNS IN DERBY

Evan Ryan, Kentville’s slugging first baseman, catcher, and designated hitter, represented Team Nova Scotia at the home run derby which followed the opening ceremonies of the Men’s National Championships in Chatham, NB. In an impressive showing, he hit nine home runs, wowing spectators and setting a high bar for the other contestants. Ultimately this was not enough to advance and Saskatchewan’s Griffin Keller won the Home Run Derby, but Evan wasn’t finished, hitting a solo home run in Nova Scotia’s Saturday game against Newfoundland.

It took nine innings, but Matty Johnson (right) collected player of the game honours on Thursday thanks to a walk-off single in front of a raucous crowd. The Cardiac Cats struck again, and defeated Team Quebec by a final score of 6-5.
